Preparing the Space

Preparing the Room

ILLUSTRATION — ROOM PROTECTION

Room with 4 Golden Roses at the corners, golden lines connecting from the top four corners to the ceiling center and bottom four corners to the floor center, with a vertical golden line unifying them. A transparent grounding cord descends from the center of the floor to the Earth.

Ref: Slide 20 — Protection of the Space

Now prepare the room you're in so that it's clean and protected:

- Create 4 Golden Roses, each with a golden stem and a golden grounding cord.
- Create 4 golden lines from the top four corners of the room, which join in the center of the room at the ceiling.
- Create 4 golden lines coming from the four lower corners of the room, which join in the center of the room, on the floor.
- Create a golden line that runs from the point where the upper lines join to the point where the lower lines join, unifying the energy in the room.

Owning Your Space

ILLUSTRATION — OWNING YOUR SPACE

Person seated within the golden grid room. Four golden lines extend from the crown chakra to the top four corners, and four golden lines from the root chakra to the bottom four corners — establishing energetic authority over the space.

Ref: Slide 22 — Owning Your Space

Own the room to have authority over the space where you are meditating:

- From the point where the lower lines join, create a transparent grounding cord that goes to the center of the Earth and expand it laterally to the edges of the room.
- See the whole room and everything in it vibrating in gold.
- Create a large golden Rose (not sticky), the size of the room, which descends from the center of the Universe, enters through the top of the room, cleanses the space and descends through the grounding cord.
- Create 4 golden lines that go from the crown chakra to the top 4 corners of the room.
- Create 4 golden lines running from the root chakra to the four bottom corners of the room.

REMARKS

Use these techniques to cleanse and protect your home, your workspaces, anywhere you go to sleep or meditate.

If you're going to meditate in an open-air space, create a dome or golden room around you and do all the techniques as if you were indoors.

Don't use these techniques to cleanse the energy of public spaces, such as restaurants, airports, banks, etc. If you're going to meditate in a public space, it's best to create a golden dome around you as if you were in an open space.

You can use these techniques for a room, for example the room where you're meditating, or for the whole house or land.

Chakra Cleansing

ILLUSTRATION — CHAKRA CLEANSING

Person seated in meditation with two grounded roses placed outside the aura — one in front and one behind — at the level of a chakra. The roses act like magnets, drawing out foreign energy. The front rose cleanses present energies, the back rose cleanses past energies.

Ref: Slide 24 — Cleansing of Each Chakra

Start cleansing the chakras by creating and exploding roses. Roses work like a vacuum cleaner or magnet and suck in energies that don't belong to you:

- On the outside of the Aura, create two grounded red Roses, one behind you and one in front, both at the level of your first chakra. We intend them to cleanse the chakra deeply, removing energies that are not yours. The front Rose cleanses mainly energies from the present and the back Rose cleanses mainly energies from the past (you can do one at a time).
- Create and explode several Roses to cleanse your chakra.
- Now create an unrooted red Rose corresponding to the first chakra (at the height of the chakra). The layer cleanses out of your Aura and create a new Rose.
- Create and explode several Roses to cleanse the layers of your Aura.
- When you feel the need, create a red Rose grounded at the level of the first chakra, outside the Aura. Intend that this Rose absorbs all your energy dispersed in this vibration. Explode this Rose and your energy will return to you elevated in vibration and purified.
- When you feel the need, explode this Rose out of your Aura and create a new Rose.

This procedure should be done equally for all the other chakras, starting from the first and going through each chakra in ascending order up to the seventh chakra:

1st Chakra (Root) — Red

2nd Chakra (Sacral) — Orange

3rd Chakra (Solar Plexus) — Yellow

4th Chakra (Heart) — Pink and Green (do both vibrations)

5th Chakra (Throat) — Sky Blue

6th Chakra (Third Eye) — Indigo Blue

7th Chakra (Crown) — Violet

Golden Sticky Roses

Create four golden sticky Roses. One at a time, they enter through the crown chakra, cleansing and traveling through our body as follows:

- The first: it enters through the crown chakra, cleansing all the chakras up to the root chakra, and exits through the grounding cord.

ILLUSTRATION — GOLDEN STICKY ROSE: PHASE 1

A golden sticky rose enters through the crown chakra and travels downward through all seven chakras, exiting through the grounding cord.

Ref: Slide 26 — Golden Sticky Roses Phase 1

- The second: it enters through the crown chakra, descends to the throat chakra, splits into two Roses that follow the channels of the arms, exiting through the chakras of the hands, and explode outside the Aura or exit through the grounding cord.

ILLUSTRATION — GOLDEN STICKY ROSE: PHASE 2

A golden sticky rose enters through the crown, descends to the throat chakra, then splits into two roses that travel down the arms and exit through the hands.

- The third: it enters through the crown chakra, descends to the root chakra, turns into two Roses that follow the channels of the legs, exit through the foot chakras and explode outside the Aura or exit through the grounding cord.

ILLUSTRATION — GOLDEN STICKY ROSE: PHASE 3

A golden sticky rose enters through the crown, descends to the root chakra, then splits into two roses that travel down the legs and exit through the feet.

- The fourth: it has a size that spans the entire width of the Aura, it enters and descends, cleansing our entire Aura, and exits through the grounding cord.

ILLUSTRATION — GOLDEN STICKY ROSE: PHASE 4

A large golden rose spans the entire width of the aura, descending from above and cleansing the whole aura as it passes through and exits via the grounding cord. The body is bathed in golden light.

Elements of Rose Meditation — Level 2

- Space protection
- Cleansing the Chakras and Aura Layers
- Golden Sticky Roses
 - First Rose: Crown to Root
 - Second Rose: Arms
 - Third Rose: Legs
 - Fourth Rose: Full Aura

To End the Meditation

- Cut the grounding cord and create a new one.
- Fill yourself with the Golden Sun.
- Place your hands on the floor to release excess energy.

Yes! Now you are ready for a beautiful day!
